SPARKLER BEING PUT ON AT ODEON

"The Breeze Girls" Have a Fine Musical Tabloid and Delight Crowds.

The Breeze Girls Musical Comedy company, which opened a week's engagement at the Odeon theater, is pleasing large audiences there.

The Breeze Girls assure all a sparkling musical comedy and it is found to be all that. A better balanced production of this kind would be difficult to locate. The songs are new and tuneful, the dances ensemble and otherwise, are very dainty, and the comedy is of a new vintage and surprisingly witty. The word is used advisedly, the inference being that so many musical comedies are almost alike when it comes to the comedy lines. There is a breezy, western flavor to this act.

The pretty girls who gathered round Roof and Ross the principal comedians are well versed in choral essentials.
 Their costumes also deserve special mention, ranging from the abbreviated to the elaborate, and all draped in an artistic way. The program will be changed tomorrow afternoon.

The death is reported of Zelma Rawlinson, who had been obliged early in the season to leave the cast of "Chin Chin" by illness.

At the Robinson Grand today, the Popular Plays and Players offers on the program of the Metro Pictures Corporation, Edmund Brees, the noted dramatic actor, in the powerful five-part photodrama, "The Song of the Wage Slave." In this production Mr.
 Brees is obliged to call into play all of his distinctive talents for the role.

Tomorrow, Jessie L. Lasky will present in his notable career. Not since Mr. Brees played the part of "John Burdett Ryder" in "The Lion and the Mouse," has he been fitted with a more suitable character than Ned Lane in "The Song of the Wage Slave." The photodrama is based upon the poem by Robert Service, author of "The Spell of the Yukon" and other verses, including one of the same title as the photodrama.

Tomorrow, Jessie L. Lasky will present Lou Tellegen, the fascinating romantic actor, in "The Explorer."

John Bedouin, whose playing of the valet in "The Great Lover" has won much favorable comment for its consummate skill, is an Australian actor who has been in this country for several years.

The Lewis-Oliver Players are out-doing themselves this week with their production of "The Rosary," which opened at the Palace last night to a capacity audience.

Jack Lewis as Father Kelly, has one of the best parts he has played during the engagement and there is never a time that he is not right at home in the character. Mr. Lewis is one of the cleverest actors that has ever appeared at the Palace.

Miss Edna Grandin, in the part of the twin sisters is seen to good advantage. Miss Lewis, while young in age, has had many years of experience in the theatrical profession and her work this week ranks with some of the best in the business. Fred Beaudoin is also seen to good advantage in the part of Lee Martin. Others in the cast that deserve special mention are Fred Her-niman, Richard Evans, Nana Deland, Nelda Gibson, and the new member Robbery C. McIntyre.

The play is a decided improvement over the ones offered last week and crowded houses should rule again to-the three days of this play. "The Rosary" will be presented again tonight, and tomorrow afternoon and night.

Starting Thursday, Mr. Lewis will offer the big fun play, "The College Widow" with Fred Beaudoin in the leading comedy part. This will be followed by a grand production of the latest sensation, "To-Day."

One of those funny Billie Ritchie comedies "Under New Management," in two laughable reels, is being offered at the Star theater today. "Marianna," a beautiful society drama with a thrilling theme, and the great Scene from "The Rosary," which is being presented at the Palace by the Lewis Oliver Players.

play, "The Penalty," full of human interest and beautifully photographed, will be the screen offering.

"The Fox Woman," a five-act Mutual Masterpiece, featuring the dainty Teddy Sampson, who is supported by a large and notable cast is the feature offering of the Orpheum theater today.

The story, which is of good strength, was written by John Luther Long, author of "Madame Butterfly," and other famous plays, and tells of life and happenings in far off Japan. It is an unforgettable drama and has won a great reputation on account of its weirdness and sublime picturization.

The three act Mutual play, "The Card Players," presenting a great cast of well known movie stars, is also offered, making an excellent program for this day.

 Tomorrow, the Universal Broadway feature, "The College Orphan," will be the special photodrama offering.

Edward Brennan, who will be remembered by many motion picture patrons as "Dunbar, the Man of Mystery" with Norma Phillips in the "Mutual Girl" series will be featured with Marie Empress in the Rolfe-Metro five part, photo-dramatization of "The Woman Pays," in which Valli Valli has the stellar role.

A real shipwreck in a real storm is the latest bit of realism produced by Director Charles Bartlett in his latest picture of Alaska entitled "A Key to the Past," an American (Mutual) release of the near future. Following the shipwreck, the cabin in which the rescued party takes refuge is struck by lightning. Through it all, Winifred Greenwood, Ed. Coxen, Nan Christy and Walter Spencer play their parts like the stoics which all picture people must be.

Shumaker, Wesleyan Halfback.
 Shumaker for three years has been recognized as the best broken field runner in the state of West Virginia.
 As an off-tackle runner his usefulness is also unquestioned. His all around work has secured for him for two years the undisputed all-star position at halfback and against Washington and Jefferson here Saturday he will have to be watched closely as he is one of the brightest of the ser-tie of stars among Wesleyan's backfield material this year.

"Three Rings and a Goat" is the title of the second number of the Wallingford pictures, showing today at the Bijou. Max Figman and Burr McIntosh are surely pleasing large audiences with this popular serial.
 George Ade's fable, "The Sorrows of the Unemployed," in one act, will be interesting. Drama is supplied by a Broadway star production, "The Woman in the Box," with Roger Lytton and Harry Morey as principals. A Pathe News is also shown as usual today.

The Wednesday bill will be topped by a Klaw and Erlanger drama, "His Hand and His Seal," a three-part special production of merit.

The most beautiful of universal expositions will be portrayed by Lyman H. Howe at the Robinson Grand Thursday night. Just whether this means the exposition at San Francisco, or the one at San Diego, is a decision that rests with every spectator of Howe's travel festival since the wonderful charm of each is set forth in all its glory in Howe's films, and so it becomes a matter of personal opinion after both are viewed through the lenses of Howe's cameras.

Percy Burton has not abandoned the idea of producing "Gamblers All," although the death of Lewis Waller, who was to have been its star, caused some delay in the plans. Another well known English star will take the late actor's place in the stellar role. The author of the play, Mrs. May Martindale, also died within the year. She was the daughter of Sir Charles Young, author of "Jim the Penman."

MILK FOR CHILDREN.

BERLIN, Nov. 9.—The Berlin mag-istry has already considered the eventual issue of milk cards, patterned after the bread cards to meet a threatened shortage in the milk supply of the city. In any event it is announced, arrangements will be made to see that enough milk shall be available for all children under nine years old. Possible limitations of the consumption will apply to healthy children above that age and to adults.

CUBAN RAINS.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

HAVANA, Cuba, Nov. 9.—Seasonable rains have raised high the expectations of the Cuban sugar plantations and splendid reports of the growing cane are coming in from all parts of the island. If gentle rain continue, followed by a spell of cool dry weather, the most extravagant estimates of the crop, which will unquestionably break all records, will be fully justified.

How to Prevent Croup.
 It may be a surprise to you to learn that in many cases croup can be prevented. Mrs. H. M. Johns, Elida, Ohio, relates her experience as follows: "My little boy is subject to croup. During the past winter I kept a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the home, and when he began having that croupy cough, I would give him one or two doses of it and it would break the attack. I like it better for children than any other cough medicine because children take it willingly, and it is safe and reliable." Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

McKean, W. and J. Guard.
 Frank McKean is playing his last year on the famous Red and Black eleven as he graduates from Washington and Jefferson next June. Mc-Kean came to Washington and Jefferson from Elida and has been a valuable man to the Red and Black outfit. He is 24 years old, six feet tall and weighs 165 pounds. While light for a guard position he is expected to make a good showing against Wesleyan here Saturday.
